Addysg ac Ysgol

Yng Nghymru, mae oedolion yn poeni oherwydd bod mwy o blant yn colli ysgol nag oedd cyn pandemig Cof-19. Gall mynd i'r ysgol yn rheolaidd helpu plant i ddysgu a gwneud yn dda yn ddwydddarach mewn bywyd. Mae gan bob plentyn yng Nghymru hawl i addysg, a nodir yn Erthygl 28 o Gonfensiwn y Cenhedloedd Unedig ar Hawliau'r Plentyn. Mae hyn yn golygu bod gan oedolion gyfrifoldeb i sicrhau bod yr ysgol yn lle sy'n groesawgar, yn deg ac yn gefnogol, lle mae plant yn teimlo'n abl ac eisiau mynd i ddysgu a fflun.

Children's Education Experience

In Wales, many adults are worried because more children are missing school than before the Covid-19 pandemic. Going to school regularly can help children learn and do well later in life. All children in Wales have a right to an education, set out in Article 28 of the UNCRC. This means adults have a responsibility to make sure school is a place that is welcoming, fair and supportive, where children feel able and want to go to learn and thrive.
